DEDICATION

Keenness of intellect, interest in task, and devotion to duty; these three attributes are essential to a successful career of service. These and more are to be found in the examples and lives of our two friends and teachers, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Yoder. Recognizing in the highest degree the primary importance of developing the student of today into the leader of tomorrow, Dr. and Mrs. Yoder have dedicated themselves untiringly to this purpose with a zeal that knows no bounds. One dedication deserves another. In behalf of the student body, faculty, staff, and friends of Campbellsville College, the Senior Class takes immeasurable pride in dedicating the 1961 Edition of the Maple Trail to Dr. and Mrs. Yoder. Nothing except our heartfelt "thanks" can express our indebtedness to you that we feel pleased and honored to acknowledge.

The Maple Trail

Shaking their heads in the wayward breeze,
Sheltering the path that gleams below,
Or skyward lifting their leafy arms,
Artistically the maples grow;
Sheltering a path that leads to a Shrine,
Sheltering all who would follow,
For some try timidly the way at first,
And some go light as a swallow.

Some try timidly the way at first,
But bolder grow on the morrow,
Knowing the path shall lead them back
Without regret or sorrow;
Lead each back to the world again
A womanly woman and a manly man,
Ready for service here or there,
Part of a whole and part of a plan.

And this the pride of the Maple Trail
Sung in the green of her guardsmen's foliage,
"Mine is the path that leads youth on
To the doors of Campbellsville College;
And soon they'll find or far or near,
No other Shrine of Knowledge
Has a path so fair as the path that leads
To the doors of Campbellsville College."
